MAUI AIDS FOUNDATION NOW ACCEPTING PERIOD PRODUCT DONATIONS TO BENEFIT MA'I MOVEMENT HAWAII AND #ENDPERIODPOVERTY

Wailuku, HI (May 7, 2021) — Maui AIDS Foundation announces a partnership with Ma'i Movement Hawai'i in its commitment to #EndPeriodPoverty in Hawai'i. Ma'i Movement Hawai'i is a locally grown grassroots nonprofit run by Native Hawaiian sisters that is committed to ending period poverty, or the inability to get period products like pads and tampons, throughout the state.

Maui AIDS Foundation will start accepting period product donations at its office throughout the month of May to support the "Mālama Your Ma'i" statewide initiative, which seeks to build community support for period supplies. Donations will be accepted in person at Maui AIDS Foundation (1935 Main Street, Suite 101, Wailuku) during regular office hours Monday through Friday from 8:30am to 4:30pm.

Donations requested include regular pads, overnight pads, tampons, and pantliners. Items must be individually wrapped to be accepted.

The month-long initiative leads up to Period Poverty Awareness Week from May 24 to May 30, and all donations raised will go back to Maui County populations that need it most during a community event that week. The initiative's ultimate goal is to build local resource streams that ensure program sustainability, including getting period products supplied for free in public schools.

"We believe in Ma'i Movement Hawai'i's core value that all individuals of menstruation age in Hawai'i have the right to access menstrual products and education without financial burden, shame, or stigma," said Maui AIDS Foundation Executive Director Chasity Cadaoas.
